Other

The Vashon Community Food Bank does not exist without the volunteers.

We are happy to have you contribute your time in whatever fashion works best for you; one day a month, a couple hours a week, one day a week, on call, or on occasion. We are delighted to have your help – thank you for your interest.

The safety and well being of our volunteers and clients is of utmost importance to us. From time to time we will hold safety trainings and will incorporate other measures to insure that the Vashon Maury Community Food Bank is a safe place for everyone. The Food Bank conducts background searches on all our volunteers. We also ask that you commit to holding confidential the clients and information you may hear during your time with us.

*I understand that as a volunteer it is very important that I respect the confidentiality of the Clients of the Food Bank. Who I see here and any information that I might hear regarding a client of the Food Bank must remain confidential.
